FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEMPHIS-BASED EMCEES FOLLOW ACCLAIMED “LAND OF DA LOST ” WITH HIGHLY ANTICIPATED ALBUM, “OVAWORKED UNDAPAID”
AVAILABLE FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27TH

Black Rain Entertainment recording artist, Tha Club House Click, has announced the release of its eagerly awaited album, “Ovaworked Undapaid”. The collection, which follows the Memphis-based emcees acclaimed “Land Of Da Lost”, will be available at all digital retailers, including iTunes, Friday, November 27th (<https://itunes.apple.com/us/album/ovaworked-undapaid/id1054499822>).

“Ovaworked Undapaid” marks the latest installment to Black Rain’s growing catalog. Furthermore, “Ovaworked Undapaid” is highlighted by such buzz tracks as the controversial “Ike Turner” and the street anthem, “Fk A Job”, and features appearances from the entire Black Rain crew (see attached track listing and production credits).

Tha Club House Click featured the late Lord Infamous of Three 6 Mafia (Da Mafia 6ix) and II Tone. Today, group members include II Tone, Mac Montese, Mr. 4Twenty, Jak Danielz, $lim Money and Da Crime Click. The group’s first album, “After Sics”, arrived in January 2009 giving Black Rain immediate affirmation as a major force.

Patrick Taylor of rapreviews.com wrote, “Infamous and crew are all skilled at their craft, and they deliver their bars so convincingly that you can almost forget just how raw it is.”

According to 24hourhiphop.com, every artist is practically in a league of their own, it’s quite obvious Infamous knows talent when he hears it (“Lord Infamous & Black Rain presents Tha Club House Click: After Sics”, 2009).

24hourhiphop.com. This is the first release by Tha Club House Click since the passing of Lord Infamous. Tha Club House Click writes lyrics with honesty and passion and speaks openly about a rough life the struggles of everyday living.”
